From the bustling streets of Kyneton, take a trip with the family to the tranquil surrounds of Malmsbury. Open paddocks, expanses of farmland and beautiful quiet roads are a feature of this very achievable and satisfying return trip. Both towns are the ideal place to grab a coffee or lunch and browse great local shops. Alternatively pack some snacks and enjoy the beautiful Botanic Gardens.

Places of interest on this ride

- A For history buffs, the Malmsbury Cemetery was gazetted in 1861, and has a fascinating bluestone house on its boundary
- B Have a picnic by the ornamental lake in the Botanic Gardens, and admire the extraordinary stone viaduct
