Ph 5422 1815.

2. ELMLEA 98 Wedge Street, Kyneton

C & J Nielsen

A large garden with expansive lawn. Mature trees line the drive and throughout. Gardens have iris, roses and an abundance of daffodils and other spring bulbs. Raised stone wall gardens harbour many varieties of hellebore, accessed by winding paths.

Open: Sat Sept 3.

Entry $5 pp. Includes tea or coffee and biscuit. Stall and raffle. No dogs please.

Proceeds R M Begg Auxiliary

Ph Lorraine Batrouney 5422 3264 or Rhonda Wencel 0429 418018.

3. GLEN-OLNEY 23 Epping Street, Kyneton

Ken & Joy Robbins

An English-style garden on a gentle hillside. This large town garden has evolved over the years into a picturesque blend of mature trees, ground cover, hellebores and daffodils.

Open: Sept 3, 4, 10 and 11. 10-5pm - Buses and groups by appointment.

Entry: Adults $4 per person. Proceeds to Juvenile Diabetes Foundation and Kyneton Daffodil & Arts Festival.

C. This garden is unable to open – is replaced by garden of Deborah and Rob added at 33 Clowes St Malmsbury

Deborah and Rob's garden on the verge immediately in front of the house was designed as a showcase for edible and medicinal plantings, while maintaining an attractive aesthetic. The conditions are quite harsh and not all plants have survived; they do a lot of mulching for summer but still need to water as well.

The plants include a row of clipped bay trees, fruit – dwarf quinces and peach, cherries, goji berry, Chilean guava, pomegranate and vegetables such as artichoke, potatoes and a variety of herbs.

Open: 10am-4pm Ph: 5423 2314
